I'm not the one to shit on anyone's opinion on the election because everyone is entitled to their opinion but if you see interviews with many McCain supporters they really think Obama is a Islamic terrorist. They really believe that if Obama wins our country will fall and the terrorists will kill Americans. WTF! Are you serious? I really liked McCain but now I truly believe that his campaign is fanning this fire to split our country in two. How disappointed with McCain and his camp.
